JOB DESCRIPTION :

The EDPS is an independent supervisory authority with the task of ensuring that the institutions and bodies of the European Union respect the right to privacy when they process personal data or develop new policies.

Acting under the authority of the Supervisor, Assistant Supervisor and Director, the official will take part in a number of tasks in accordance with the instructions of the Head of the IT Policy Unit. In particular, he or she will:

-) contribute to the unit's activities in the field of technology monitoring, in cooperation with other team members, by:
 - monitoring at national, supranational and global level the development of Information and Communication Technologies, which may have an impact on privacy and the protection of personal data;
 - preparing reports on the impact of technological developments on data protection and privacy;
 - compiling and editing EDPS publications on technological developments and their impact on data protection and privacy for a wide, non-specialist audience;
 - preparing briefings and information sessions on technological developments, in particular for EDPS management and staff.
-) contribute to the unit's activities relating to technological data protection measures and security of personal data by:

- promoting the application of the principle of "privacy by design" (applying data protection requirements in the life cycle of new technologies and systems as early as possible) as established by the GDPR and Regulation (EU) 2018/1725;
 - preparing reports, opinions and decisions in the field of IT policy, aiming, on the one hand, to ensure the application of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and the Council and other relevant acts, and, on the other hand, to follow technological and legislative developments that may have an impact on the protection of personal data.
 - cooperating with other supervisory authorities, e.g. in the European Data Protection Board;
-) contribute to supervision and enforcement tasks linked to the application of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, including:
- providing advice to data controllers on technical and organisational measures for the processing of personal data respects the fundamental rights of individuals and ensuring the security of processing and personal data;
 - examining complaints linked to the application of new technologies in the institutions and bodies of the European Union, as well as other requests coming from data subjects;
 - perform IT inspections in the EU institutions and bodies to ensure the proper application of IT and security elements in Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.
 - conducting inspections and security and data protection audits in complex IT environments.
-) contribute to the tasks of other units in the EDPS connected to technological and legislative developments such as:
- contributing to EDPS opinions, formal comments etc. and provide advice to EU institutions and bodies on matters related to technological issues.
-) contribute to the unit's tasks related to the management and monitoring of IT systems used by the EDPS, by e.g.:
- evaluating IT security measures and formulating recommendations to improve their effectiveness;

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE:

- a level of education corresponding to completed university studies in a relevant field of at least three years, attested by a diploma;
- to have the ability to assess the impact of technological developments on privacy and data protection;
- to have the ability to draft reports on technological issues for a non-specialist audience;
- to have relevant professional experience in the field of network security and information systems as well as good capacity of analysis and editorial skills;
- to have a good knowledge of methods and standards for software engineering and experience in the field of development, management and administration of information systems;
- to have a sufficient knowledge of the legislation and its implications concerning data protection with regard to the EU institutions and bodies;
- to have a sufficient knowledge of the structure and functioning of the European Union and of its institutions, the treaties and other fields of EU law in relation to the position;
- to have the ability and to be ready to work in a small team in a dynamic environment;
- a thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the European Union and good knowledge of another EU language. For practical reasons, a good knowledge of English is necessary and of French or German desirable. Knowledge of other official languages would be considered as an advantage.

These activities may require missions away from head office.

We especially look for someone who fits in an informal but professional working environment, where we appreciate collegiality, sharing of information and creativity, and who enjoys engaging constructively with stakeholders, based on our core values: integrity, impartiality, transparency and pragmatism.

ADMISSIBILITY :

Officials of the Institutions of the European Union in grades AD 5-8 who are interested in this position and who think they have the necessary qualifications, as well as laureates of an EPSO competition are invited to send their application to the functional mailbox Recruitment@edps.europa.eu.

Aligned with our Equal Opportunities strategy and with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations, the EDPS embraces diversity and promotes equal opportunities. The EDPS accepts applications without discrimination on grounds of sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of national minority, property, disability, age, gender identity or sexual orientation.

- the application form
- a detailed curriculum vitae
- an official document attesting the status of an official (category, grade), the different posts held in the EU institutions and bodies, and a copy of the last two evaluation reports; or an official document from EPSO attesting that that the candidate is a laureate.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING APPLICATIONS: FROM 03/07/2019 TO 31/07/2019

Brussels, 2nd July 2019

Leonardo CERMEIRA NAVAS

¹ All personal data from the applications are processed in accordance with the EDPS Data Protection Notice.

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE EDPS AND OUR STAFF

EDPS: A young and dynamic institution

The EDPS was established in Brussels in 2004, and as the European's Union independent data protection authority, the EDPS aims to serve as an impartial centre of excellence for enforcing and reinforcing EU data protection and privacy standards, both in practice and in law.

It has about 100 staff members, most of which are EU officials but also contract agents and Seconded National Experts working full or part-time.

EDPS: A great place to work

We believe that a good working environment is a precondition to ensure staff engagement and well-being and that it is essential to strike a good balance between work and private life. To this end we provide staff with a modern working environment using familiar IT tools, a good balance between work and private life (using flexitime and telework).

EDPS: A place to grow and develop your career in an EU institution

Our staff enjoys a high level of autonomy and diversity of tasks, working in small, dynamic teams. We have developed an ambitious "Learning & development policy" to foster personal development and to improve personal skills and competencies. Also we encourage and fully support AST colleagues who are eligible to participate in the Certification Programme.

Our staff benefit from the same mobility policy as the larger EU institutions such as the Commission, Parliament and the Council, because the EDPS is treated as an EU institution for the purposes of the Staff Regulations and the Financial Regulation. As a result, staff can transfer their grade, step, seniority and all the other career elements seamlessly between the EDPS and any of these institutions. The EDPS can be a useful career step for officials who would like to work with us for a while and then return to continue their careers long-term within the larger institutions.
