WHO ARE WE?

The EDPS - a young and dynamic institution

The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS), a young EU institution established in 2004, in Brussels, Belgium, is the independent data protection authority of the EU institutions and the advisor of the EU legislator on data protection matters. We strive to be an impartial centre of excellence in order to embed a strong data protection culture in the EU institutions and the legislation emanating from them. We also closely follow technological developments and try to anticipate their impact on the privacy of individuals. Our organisation employs about 120 staff members, most of whom are EU officials, but we also welcome Contract Agents and Seconded National Experts, working full-time or part-time.

The EDPS - a great place to work

We value a strong culture of respect, flat hierarchical structures and an open door policy to foster innovative ideas and a strong collaboration between colleagues. To ensure our staff's well-being and motivation, we believe that it is essential to create a healthy organisational climate and to strike a good work-life balance. To achieve this, we offer various flexible working arrangements, as well as learning and development opportunities, such as job-shadowing and training programmes.

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

Someone who

- fits in an informal and friendly yet professional working environment;
- appreciates working collaboratively with other colleagues on a variety of different projects;
- brings their creativity and initiative to the table;
- enjoys engaging constructively with stakeholders, based on our core values: integrity, impartiality, transparency and pragmatism.

ABOUT THE POSITION

Our job vacancy is in the Financial Sector, which is part of the HR, Budget and Administration Unit (HRBA). The unit is in charge of a number of horizontal processes aimed to ensure the financial, human and administrative resources and tools for the smooth functioning of the EDPS. The unit also provides financial, HR, and administrative support to the Secretariat of the European Data Protection Board (EDPB), which is administratively attached to the EDPS.

As a Financial Assistant, you will act as Financial Initiating Agent and support EDPS and EDPB units with commitments and payments initiation. You will ensure that the internal budgetary and financial procedures are kept updated at all times.

Your main responsibilities will include:

- Management and follow-up of administrative expenditure files;
- Registration of financial documents such as debit notes, invoices etc. in an electronic register;
- Monitoring of the budget execution and providing assistance in budgetary and financial issues;
- Ensuring that transactions are financially and procedurally correct in conformity with the Financial Regulation and other rules and guidelines, including any relevant contracts procedure;
- Initiate transaction in Speedwell and ABAC for invoices, payments, recovery order, commitments and de-commitments;
- Carrying out administrative and/or financial tasks within the framework of public procurement procedures for the purchase of goods and services and actively participating in all phases of procurement procedures;
- Participating in the evaluation of offers in the framework of procurement procedures;
- Assisting the accounting correspondent of the Institution.

You may also be required to carry out additional tasks when necessary and in the interest of the service.

OUR ELIGIBILITY AND SELECTION CRITERIA

Eligibility criteria

For your application to be considered, you must meet the following criteria by the deadline for submitting applications¹:

- A level of post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to post-secondary education;
- At least three years of relevant professional experience.

¹ In case you will be offered the job, you must also provide evidence of EU nationality; have completed any compulsory military service; provide appropriate character references (have no criminal record); pass the EU institutions' medical examination; be fluent in one of the EU languages and be able to work in a second EU language.

- Candidates for this Contract Agent position must have passed the EPSO Permanent CAST by the end of the recruitment process and are therefore encouraged to create a corresponding EPSO profile already with their application.

Selection criteria

For this job vacancy, we are looking for someone with the following essential and advantageous skills and experience:

Essential
