WHO ARE WE?

The EDPS - a young and dynamic institution

The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS), a young EU institution established in 2004, in Brussels, Belgium, is the independent data protection authority of the EU institutions and the advisor of the EU legislator on data protection matters. We strive to be an impartial centre of excellence in order to embed a strong data protection culture in the EU institutions and the legislation emanating from them. We also closely follow technological developments and try to anticipate their impact on the privacy of individuals. Our organisation employs about 120 staff members, most of whom are EU officials, but we also welcome Contract Agents and Seconded National Experts, working full-time or part-time.

The EDPS - a great place to work

We value a strong culture of respect, flat hierarchical structures and an open door policy to foster innovative ideas and a strong collaboration between colleagues. To ensure our staff's well-being and motivation, we believe that it is essential to create a healthy organisational climate and to strike a good work-life balance. To achieve this, we offer various flexible working arrangements, as well as learning and development opportunities, such as job-shadowing and training programmes.

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

Someone who

- fits in an informal and friendly yet professional working environment;
- appreciates working collaboratively with other colleagues on a variety of different projects;
- brings their creativity and initiative to the table;
- engages constructively with stakeholders, based on our core values: integrity, impartiality, transparency and pragmatism.

ABOUT THE POSITION

Our job vacancy is in the Finance Sector, which is part of the Human Resources, Budget and Administration Unit (HRBA). The unit composed of a dynamic and motivated team of 18 people is in charge of a number of horizontal processes aimed to ensure the financial, human and administrative resources and tools for the smooth functioning of the European Data Protection Supervisor. The unit also provides financial, human resources, and administrative support to the Secretariat of the European Data Protection Board (EDPB), which is administratively attached to the EDPS.

As Budget & Finance Assistant, you will work under the guidance of the Head of Sector Finance and your main responsibilities will include:

- Assisting in the management and follow-up of expenditure files within the administrative budget of the EDPS;
- Assisting in the preparation of the EDPS draft budget and contribution to the budgetary reporting;
- Monitoring the budget execution and preparation of budget transfers (liaise with the Budgetary Authority if needed);
- Provide guidance and advice to the Institution on financial and budgetary aspects;
- Contribute to the development and implementation of procedures in the field;
- In your capacity, you will be in regular contacts with colleagues at operational level and other services, in particular DG Budget.

You may also be required to carry out additional tasks when necessary and in the interest of the service.
