WHO ARE WE?

The EDPS - a young and dynamic institution

The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS), a young EU institution established in 2004, in Brussels, Belgium, is the independent data protection authority of the EU institutions and the advisor of the EU legislator on data protection matters. We strive to be an impartial centre of excellence in order to embed a strong data protection culture in the EU institutions and the legislation emanating from them. We also closely follow technological developments and try to anticipate their impact on the privacy of individuals. Our organisation employs about 120 staff members, most of whom are EU officials, but we also welcome Contract Agents and Seconded National Experts, working full-time or part-time.

The EDPS - a great place to work

We value a strong culture of respect, flat hierarchical structures and an open door policy to foster innovative ideas and a strong collaboration between colleagues. To ensure our staff's well-being and motivation, we believe that it is essential to create a healthy organisational climate and to strike a good work-life balance. To achieve this, we offer various flexible working arrangements, as well as learning and development opportunities, such as job-shadowing and training programmes.

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

Someone who

- fits in an informal and friendly yet professional working environment;
- appreciates working collaboratively with other colleagues on a variety of different projects;
- brings their creativity and initiative to the table;
- engages constructively with stakeholders, based on our core values: integrity, impartiality, transparency and pragmatism.

ABOUT THE POSITION

Our job vacancy is in the Supervision and Enforcement Unit. The unit monitors the processing of personal data by the EU administration and ensures that Union institutions, offices, bodies and agencies (EUI's) comply with data protection rules. Our core tasks range from conducting investigations and audits to handling complaints and prior consultations on processing operations. We decide on the best way to address identified issues, and we enforce the law, which includes using the EDPS' corrective powers, including administrative fines and litigation in the EU courts.

As an Administrative Assistant in the Supervision and Enforcement Unit, your main responsibilities will include:

- Assisting the Head of Unit and the Deputy Head of Unit in the management of the Unit by supporting the planning and follow-up of the activities of the Unit.
- Managing functional mailboxes of the Unit and handling incoming/outgoing communications;
- Handling the EDPS file management system (CMS), incl. opening and closing cases;
- Managing translation requests and assisting in the budget forecast for such requests;
- Preparing, formatting and quality check documents;
- Providing support and organising events, conferences and meetings with internal and external experts, including reimbursement of experts, using the AGM system as well as budgetary requests related to events and meetings. Providing operational support on the days of the event(s);
- Provide general administrative support including agenda planning, drafting minutes, document registration and filing;
- Collaboration with colleagues in the S&E secretariat to ensure synergies and business continuity;
- Other logistic or administrative matters identified by the Head of Unit.

You may also be required to carry out additional tasks when necessary and in the interest of the service.
