Subject: RE: Follow-up of prior check "Collection of names and certain other relevant data of returnees for joint return operations (JRO)" (case 2009-0281)

Dear [REDACTED],

Again, thank you for this information. I would only have one small additional question on the part about information to data subjects:

You mention that as a general rule, the Member States provide this information to the data subjects. Did FRONTEX take any specific measures to ensure that Member States in fact do so in an appropriate way? This could for example have taken the form of a circular to the Member States reminding them of this obligation.

Thank you for your cooperation,

Kind regards and have a nice weekend,

[REDACTED]

Subject: Follow-up of prior check "Collection of names and certain other relevant data of returnees for joint return operations (JRO)" (case 2009-0281)

Dear [REDACTED]

On 26 April 2010, the EDPS issued a prior check opinion on the "Collection of names and certain other relevant data of returnees for joint return operations (JRO)" (our case 2009-0281) which contained several recommendations which FRONTEX should implement to be in compliance with Regulation (EC) 45/2001.

As a follow-up to this opinion, I am writing to you to request information on the actions FRONTEX has taken to implement these recommendations.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
